As a company, Rigel Marine follows the concept of quality management and quality assurance. Since the beginning till date, we have continued to upgrade the ship quality control system with the help of our team, and with the same spirit we have made our benchmark in various other counties and now we are a huge team with many channel partners.

Empanelled with the government of India and PSU`s Rigel Marine actively provides services from its various other branch offices mentioned below to a number of ship owners located worldwide:- India, UAE, Singapore, and Norway

WHO WE ARE

Rigel Marine has grown to become a globally renowned and trusted name in the Crew management industry. With a diverse and extensive pool of 2,200 officers, our organization boasts a robust workforce to support our global operations. We have approximately 600 officers deployed on our ships, these talented individuals represent a wide range of skills, expertise, and cultural backgrounds.

TECHNICAL MANAGEMENT

Technical ship management services are our team of highly skilled and resolute superintendents. We monitor the vessels' performance closely to ensure optimum operating efficiency. Further, ships under our care are inspected at regular intervals by the superintendent concerned to follow up on all aspects of shipboard operational matters and to maintain active contact with the vessel.

More than allocating the best-suited superintendent to a ship, we take special interest to maintain a good superintendent/vessel allocation ratio to ensure vessels under his charge always get prompt attention. It is this commitment from Rigel that assures every vessel's operating requirements are met and vessel operating condition is always at its peak working synergistically with our superintendents is our computerized Planned Maintenance System that allows for close monitoring and timely vessel maintenance. The sustained optimal vessel performance and cost savings that result demonstrate the quality of our technical management services.

We focus on maximizing availability and loss prevention through Effective planned maintenance and procurement systems.

Close interaction between onboard personnel and experienced shore-based engineering and marine teams.

Integrated software systems covering all aspects of ship management.
